

Individual Program Opportunities

Okpik 2017-18

Dog Sled Trek

Head out into the wilderness with the dog teams and camp with the dogs out on the ice. Take ownership of a team of dogs and learn to feed, house, harness and otherwise care for them. Participants must be 14 years old or currently enrolled in the 8th grade.

Session 1: February 9-12, 2018

Cost: $525 per participant (an airport shuttle is available for an additional $130)

Okpik Cold Weather Camping Weekend

Learn the basics of winter camping. Crews will pack their gear onto sleds (or "pulks") and head out into the wilderness, spending their nights camping on the snow and ice. Scouts will learn how to set up a winter campsite, how to build snow shelters and how to cook meals at low temperatures. In addition, they will get to try out a full array of winter activities. Participants must be at least 14 years old or currently enrolled in 8th grade.

Session 1: January 19 - 22, 2018 (3 nights)

Cost: $300 per participant (an airport shuttle is available for an additional $130)
